Course Policies

(1) Attendance and participation

Attendance is required. You are expected to actively participate in class activities.

(2) Written quizzes

At few separate times during the semester, you will be responsible for writing a quiz from the things that were covered in the classroom before. The instructor will provide individual feedback. The quizzes will be stored and will provide further feedback for Ss on their progress throughout the course.

Course Expectations

Attendance and Participation

Since this course is an oral communication course, attendance and active participation is mandatory. Full attendance means arriving on time, remaining present, actively participating in class discussions, and completing assignments and readings before the class meets. You may be absent for one class without penalty to your attendance grade; any additional absences will affect your grade. If an absence is unavoidable, please speak with the instructor prior to your absence where possible.

Technology in the Classroom

Please do NOT bring your laptops to class (unless we are using them for a specific class activity). Cell phones should be silenced and put away (i.e., not on desktops or laps) for the duration of class.

Late Assignments

If, for some reason, you are unable to turn in an assignment on time, please discuss the issue with the instructor as early as possible. Late assignments with no explanation may lose points.

Academic Integrity & Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using someone else's words, ideas, and/or data in your work and treating it as your own by either not citing it or by citing it inappropriately. Plagiarism is a very serious issue in any university system.

Dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated in this course. Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabricating information or citations, facilitating acts of academic dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students. Students who are found to be dishonest will receive academic sanctions and will be reported to the University's Management office for possible further disciplinary sanction.

Assessment and Grading

The final score is composed in attendance and participation (40%), 2 projects (20%), midterm exam (20%), and final exam (20%).
